A Warrior is Pure

Whoever loves pure thoughts and kind words will have even the king as a friend*.* Proverbs 22:11 NCV (New Century Version)

Please realize that the King of Kings and Lord of Lords calls us His friend:

> You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends*, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.* (John 15:14-15)

Luke 18:27

John 19:25-26

A warrior worships, down on her face, pure reverence for her King, ready and willing to listen and praise Him.

And a warrior is kind. She is filled with the Holy Spirit which gives her the fruit of self-control. She does not lash out, but instead approaches all situations with reason and grace.

A warrior abides with the Lord Jesus Christ; she is in her Scriptures daily, whether reading them or listening to them. She prays and she seeks the will of her King.

Lastly, and probably the most important, a warrior is pure.

This is what a warrior does. This is who we are in the Lord, and what we were created to be. We are not simpering cowards. Through Jesus Christ, we have been made powerful in mind and spirit – a veritable force to be reckoned with within the spiritual realm.
