

To serve, fill a pastry bag with the cheese mixture and fill the cannoli, allowing some mixture to remain at the outside of the shells. Roll the ends in chocolate and serve at once. Do not put the cheese into the cannoli until ready to serve as it will ruin the crisp cookie.

“That is devilish of you...I cannot believe you would do this to someone who loves you so much.”

—Vincenzo Caselli, May 1975, when he learned that his brother, Petrice, would not be attending Angel’s graduation.
